cream for discoloration

This new product was born from a special technology based on Shea Butter, a gift of Africa to the well-being of skin and hair. Between the Nile and Senegal, in the heart of the African continent grows the tree of youth :

Tree Shea (Shea means life). From the woody core of the fruit produce high quality shea butter that due to its remarkable properties (emollient, moisturizing, soothing, and protective properties) together with the cosmeticità of a cream, make SENSUS® DECO CREAM BLEACH a unique product.
