WAVE TEXTURE

spray dry for a long-lasting seal but flessbile

The perfect fusion between the strength of a mineral powder texturizing and the softness of cotton required to generate a long-lasting and full volume. Its versatility makes it ideal for creating soft waves and natural for every day, or unstructured and looks a bit ' uncombed for the weekend, until you get to the more defined for special events. The effect is opaque and fixing modular, to give that extra -texture that today's women want : hair sublime but very contemporary and with high flexibility.
box: 250 ml bottle.
